

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

ACCORDING TO A WELL-KNOWN Mr. Emerson, there is compensation in all things, but frankly, we were hard put to find any compensation in our predicament of last week — or maybe Mr. Emerson hadn't had the flu when he wrote that book — or possibly learning a thing or two might be considered compensation, and, believe me, we learned a thing or two.

Lesson Number 1: When we finally pulled ourselves together sufficiently to read an old Reader's Digest, we were charmed with an article on current slang, and we garnered the impression that without a translation of generally and present-day "hep" expressions the older generation (us, for instance) simply wouldn't know what the younger generation was driving at.

We were musing over this oddity of the young to create a lingo of their own when we overheard father telling daughter to "get a wiggle on and step on it because it was time to shovel!" The "hep" of the early part of the century, no doubt.

LESSON NUMBER 2: That pristine queen of the kitchen, that roaring lady of suds and slobber who yields grudgingly to anyone but the housewife's touch, that monster of unpredictable spouts and work stoppages at the hands of one's husband — the electric dishwasher!

After several days' collection of dishes had made it virtually impossible to eat another meal out of anything except your own hands, father and a friend decided to load her up, turn her on and let the devil take the hindmost.

As a matter of fact, that is just what happened. Thye turned on the water but not the electricity, so the contraption just got full and started to leak all over the place.

When they tried to rectify the mistake, it was too late and the machine wouldn't start with all that water inside, so they had to bail her out — we don't know with what but we noticed a cracked tea cup on the drain board when we crept into the kitchen shortly thereafter.

Our harassed family is quite relieved to know that once more we are feeling right chipper (?) and can resume the domination of the kitchen — we only hope that you, our harassed readers, are just as happy to have us once more resuming domination of this column.

AND BACK TO THE KITCHEN. How would you like a Filet Chateaubriand four inches thick for 40 cents — or a dish of shrimps weighing a pound each! It's all right, it isn't the effect of the flu on us — it's the effect of a conversation with Mrs. Fred Federighi who, with Mrs. Federighi, is just back from a regular Arabian Nights' jaunt to South America.

The pre-Lenten Carnival at the "nothing-else-like-it" new hotel El Panama that you read about recently in Life. The people danced steadily the clock around for four days, and the costumes and jeweled head-dresses inspired the Federighis to buy some for themselves — so watch for them at the next masquerade party hereabouts.

The San Blas Islands, where the people live just the same as they did in the day of Columbus except for the fairly recent addition of a few missionaries. They stare at the tourists and the tourists stare at them, each thinking the other pretty strange, no doubt.

The Gavies Golf Course in Rio, lush with tree orchids, jacaranda and red shower trees and cup-of-gold. Golfers note — there they use the small golf ball, goes through the air with the greatest of ease, but we forgot to ask its effect on putting.

At Puerto Rico the beautiful El Caribe Hotel and the government-controlled casinos.

And then, for the high life, a cable car ride (with the cable holding you up, not holding you down) to Sugar Loaf Mountain.

Deep sea fishing where the fish are not only outlandishly large but outlandishly hard-fighting — however, they landed them just the same. The way to spot a school of fish is to look up, not down — watch out for pelicans in the sky.

And in April some time a steamer trunk will come along bearing the look — no, not the fish, but the costumes, leather goods, etcetera, which they couldn't resist buying. In the meantime, they are content to relive the trip with the 3000 feet of movie film they used while there.

ONE SEMI-RAINY SATURDAY AFTERNOON recently many mothers and their young teen-age daughters got themselves all prettied with hats and gloves and headed for the hilltop home of Mrs. Thomas St. Hill, there to have tea with Linda St. Hill and her mother.

The house was spring-like with blossoms, and mother St. Hill gazed at her guests over a shoulder of white gardenias, and Linda had an old-fashioned bouquet pinned to the belt of her dress. And why all this? Because Linda was sweet 16.

CAPTAIN AND MRS. H. WATTS PILLSBURY have just returned from Tampa, Florida, for their son's wedding to Mary Martin of Tampa. The whole thing took a fine bit of timing because the 300 wedding invitations were sent out while Lieutenant Eugene Pillsbury was still in the Far East. However, by flying from Pearl Harbor he made it in time for his own wedding.

Of course, there were the usual spinster and family dinners and rehearsal parties, and then the wedding at St. Andrew's Cathedral and the reception at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club.

After that, Captain and Mrs. Pillsbury went to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fehr in Atlantic City — then on to New York, then home to collapse and have a good rest — at least until Gene and his bride arrive after driving across the continent, because then they can all start looking for houses or apartments because Lieutenant Pillsbury will be stationed at Treasure Island.

THE JACK MOYLANS ARE JUST BACK from Death Valley. If they had been able to prognosticate the weather that would greet them on their return, they would probably have stayed there.

Same goes for the Frank Silvas, just home from the desert; the Ray Devins, who went to Yosemite, as did also the Charles Gibbs.

We will bet that the Richard Breuners wish they were back in Florida, too, as well as the R. K. Smiths, who probably didn't run the risk of being drowned during their recent visit to Phoenix like we did this morning on our trip to the Crossroads.

The Stuart Davises are home from Santa Barbara, and the Lyle Yorks are home from the snow.

AND SO, ON THE NIGHT OF THE LAST DELUGE — great guns, at least we hope it was the last deluge; it is getting to the point that when we look out the window and see that it is raining again we can't believe what we see!

Well, anyway, last Friday evening several friends and neighbors swam over to the Joseph Langs' home in Sleepy Hollow and there amused themselves all evening with delightful conversation, baked ham, discussions of the weather, salad ring with shrimp center, ideas regarding the forthcoming elections, casserole potatoes, the traffic on Tunnel Road, and the best ice cream cake.

Came the witching hour of midnight, or considerably thereafter, and they let down the gangplank, and everybody went home.

DID YOU NOW THAT AT the Children's Hospital there are many full-pay patients who pay a full fee commensurate with other hospitals in the community? They are attended by their own private physicians. That is all.

William A. Davies Honor Artist and Wife at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Davies honored Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tittle on Danburg, Conn., at a dinner party Sunday at their home at 301 La Espiral.

as an Artist Sees Him."

Attending the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Davis, the Messrs. Rich and Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kennedy and Mrs. Margaret Roper of Orinda and Dr. and Mrs. George H. Becker of San Francisco.

YES, YOU CAN do something about taxes, government, local problems. Keep informed, participate, register and vote.

Plan Baseball Games for Boys Of Cub Pack 52

There will be no area-wide organized baseball this year but teams will be made up and coached by Ken Dettling, according to an announcement made at the meeting. The teams will play among themselves and with other packs in Orinda, and will have an occasional game with other packs in the area.

First practice will be at 10 a.m. March 29 at Glorietta School. It was suggested to den mothers that den meeting outdoor activities in the future be limited to baseball practice.

Next pack meeting will be held April 17 at Orinda School. Theme for the April meeting will be "Things That Grow." Handicraft will be on display, and boys are urged to bring their work.

Instead of tools being given to each den, as announced previously, it has been decided there will be a tool library, with Nonie Doty in charge. Each den mother may sign out for the tools she will need each week.

Next committee meeting will be held at the Charles Nelson residence on Orchard Court, April 21. Horace Breed was in charge of the pack's activities on Arbor Day at Glorietta School. The boys planted 20 pyracantha plants under the master planting plan. The plants were purchased at a discount through Galen Darr of Moraga Valley Nursery.

Den 8 won the Achievement Award. A new transfer from Berkeley is Donald McLeod to Den 4.

It will be a dessert luncheon and book review and will be held at the home of Mrs. William A. Sparling, 9 Highland Court, Orinda.

Mrs. Alendar Davis, who will review "The Town of Glory," was very enthusiastically received by those who heard her at the Pandora meeting last week.

Hostesses for the day will be Mesdames William Arends, R. A. Payram, William Maddock, Thomas Reese, M. E. Spaght and William B. Sheppard. Pouring for the affair will be Mrs. James M. Brown and Mrs. Charles Gibbs.

Large Group To Attend Berkeley Thank Offering

A large group has signed up from St. Stephen's Episcopal Church to go to Berkeley to attend the Spring Diocesan United Thank Offering presentation at All Souls Church today. Both Bishop Block and Bishop Shires will participate.

Those wishing to arrange transportation are asked to call the chairman of St. Stephen's U. T. O., Mrs. William Hagens, at Orinda 2644.

John Hull is starting a new class for acolytes to meet at 11 a. m. Sundays at 83 Orinda Highway, commencing this Sunday. Seven or eight boys have already signed up.

Choir rehearsal for this week ONLY will be held at the church Sunday afternoon at 3:45. Regular meeting time of 8 p. m. on Wednesdays will be resumed thereafter.

Projects Planned By Mothers Club; H.S. Bonds OK'd

Members of the Orinda Mothers Club voted funds for the school libraries, new curtains for the Orinda School auditorium, and possible bleachers for the Orinda and Glorietta Schools at their monthly meeting Tuesday at Orinda School.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Robert Bigler, president, they endorsed the proposed high school bond issue that comes up for vote next Tuesday. Dr. Ralph Hall, high school district board member, spoke briefly on the bond issue.

Jean Downs, chairman for Absurdia in Suburbia III, announced that Ruth Henry would act as ticket chairman for the Glorietta area, due to the illness of Mrs. Greg Engelhard.

Rehearsals for the Mothers Club talent show are being held regularly for skits, dancers and singers. Anyone interested is urged to contact skit chairmen or directors, or Jean Downs. The show will be produced on May 2 and 3 at Acalanes High School auditorium.

Ethel O'Neill's Orinda first grade class received the book award for having the most mothers attending the meeting.

A highlight of the afternoon was colored slides of Guatemala, shown by Mrs. Donald Krotz. The pictures were taken on her family's six-week tour of Mexico and Central America. She emphasized that Central America is especially enjoyable with children.

Mrs. Jewel Witter, room mother for Miss O'Neill's class, was in charge of the serving of refreshments.

Eye Tests - Kids Benefit by Work Of Mothers Club

All children from the first through eighth grades in the Orinda and Glorietta Schools will have had their eyes tested this week by members of the Mothers Club health committee of which Mrs. Coleman Huntley is chairman.

Mrs. Huntley and her committee have been working for the past month in both schools to give each child the Snellen eye chart test to determine his vision.

RESULTS OF EACH child's eye test are being mailed to the parents by the Mothers Club with a letter of explanation of what the tests show.

Children shown to have faulty vision test will have their eyes re-tested by Eva Anderson, county health nurse, as soon as possible. She will then inform parents of the results of her findings so that children needing glasses can have their family oculist look after them.

This annual eye test by the Mothers Club did not include the kindergarten classes of the two schools because of the difficulty of testing large classes of youngsters who do not yet know how to read all letters.

Mrs. Huntley particularly wants to thank all of the teachers for their "wonderful cooperation during class time" while the eye tests were being given in each classroom.

MEMBERS OF THE health committee who have been assisting Mrs. Huntley on the project include Mesdames Joseph Nicolet, Norman

Home Department Takes Two Trips; Meets Wednesday

Members of the Orinda Home Department recently attended a meeting at Covell, where Mrs. Putnam told of her five years behind the "Iron Curtain" in Russia as the wife of an American engineer.

Also taken this month was a trip to the Emporium in San Francisco where members heard a discussion on "Furniture Buying," and saw a fashion show featuring the "1952 Maid of Cotton."

Next regular monthly meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Wendelbo, 17 El Gavilan, next Wednesday at 10 a. m. Mary Eyon Lerche, home advisor, will conduct a discussion on "Weight Control."

These meetings are open to everyone, so call Mrs. Wendelbo, Orinda 8111, if you would like to come.

A record of each eye test is to be kept at the schools for future reference, Mrs. Huntley said.

The County Health Department has only one nurse for the whole Orinda-to-Walnut Creek area, and her duties are such that it would be impossible for her to check the vision of each child in the Orinda schools. For the past several years the health committee of Mothers Club has performed that task, and it will continue to do so, Mrs. Huntley said.

Dons Play Well But El Cerrito Nine Wins, 2-1

The Acalanes baseball nine finally got in another game Monday. It was a top-notch ball game all the way, with but one error marring an afternoon of outstanding ball.

BOB WESTLUND started on the mound for the Dons, and his south-paw slants proved effective as he retired the side in order in the opening frame.

In the second he lost the first two batters on bases on balls and retired the next batter, Willie Calvin, on a fly to center, only to have the next batter hit a high pitch to left center for a triple and scoring two runs ahead of him.

THE TWO RUNS proved to be enough for the win.

Bob settled down to keep things well in hand until Bob Borghesani, another pitcher, took over in the fifth and shut out El Cerrito the rest of the way.

THE DONS' LONE tally came in the final inning, when Jerry Macaulay caught hold of a fast ball and hit a clean single to left, to score Bob Westlund, who had got on via the walk route.

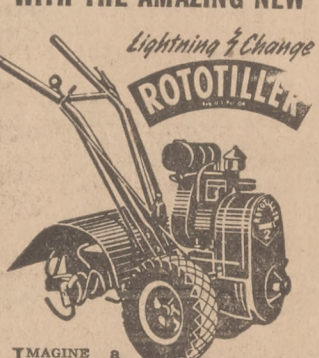

The Dons had four hits to three for the visitors, while Pitchers Westlund and Borghesani mowed down 11 on strikeouts, with nine Dons going down the same way.

EL CERRITO rates as one of the Bay Area's top nines, and the game indicated that the Dons have one of their better nines and are definitely contenders for top county honors.

Wet weather has handicapped early season conditioning, and therefore the class of ball played was surprising.

Whether Dons Play Depends on Weather!..

Acalanes' athletes are ready and "raring" to go, provided the weather man gives them half a chance. A track meet was scheduled for the Dons' cinder oval yesterday afternoon with Antioch, San Ramon and Las Lomas furnishing the opposition. As of midweek, it was anyone's guess as to whether old Jupiter Pluvius would allow it to be held. There was a possibility the meet might be put over to Monday.

Next Thursday Berkeley and Las Lomas are scheduled for another home meet, and on the records to date it appears that the Don Varsity rates the favorite over the city invader, while the Bees due to lack of depth, figure to be no better than even-stevens.

BASEBALL IS SCHEDULED to get league play under way today, with Antioch furnishing the opposition at Antioch, but playing the game was in the doubtful stage up to yesterday, due to extremely wet grounds. The game may be postponed to Monday.

Antioch is boasting an all-veteran nine, as are the Dons, and it appears to be a top clash in the opening of league play.

Bob Westlund or Bob Borghesani will take to the mound for the Dons, with Andy Monsen on the receiving end.

THE J.V. BASEBALL team also goes to work today (weather permitting), meeting Richmond on the local diamond in a 3:30 affair.

Tomorrow the Don Varsity crosses bats at Berkeley with the Cal Frosh, and next Friday, March 28, it hits league game number 2, with Alhambra furnishing the opposition on the Acalanes diamond.

The J.V. nine meets San Ramon here next Wednesday at 3:30.

TENNIS MEETS Antioch today at Antioch, and Alhambra next Friday, March 28, at Acalanes, and the Dons appear favorites in both matches of league play.

Swimming makes its first home appearance, against a strong Hayward crew next Wednesday, and the Dons remain the favorites, as they appear to be one of the best teams in the Bay Area.

Phil Lowthian of Acalanes dropped the next match to Bill Hooper, 4-6, 3-6, giving the Dons a one-match edge going into the doubles.

Flanders and Gray dropped the number 1 doubles, 4-6, 4-6, but Don Rathjen and John Kistinger saved the day when they came through 6-3, 6-1.

THE DONS HAD dropped two earlier meets when they lost to Piedmont at Piedmont and again when Piedmont came to Antioch.

The play on the whole was greatly improved over early season form and gave notice that the Dons are ready and capable of defending the county title they won last year.

Scout Council Training Confab March 29 and 30

The Annual Spring Training Conference of the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council will be held at Camp Herms, 1290 Arlington Avenue, El Cerrito, March 29 and 30, according to council training committee chairman.

The conference will open at 2 p. m. Saturday and close with 12:30 luncheon on Sunday. The program will include demonstrations in cubbing handicraft, commissioner training, training in basic scouting skills, a unit commissioner training course for all cub packs, and scout troop and explorer unit committee members and sessions on explorer program development, cub pack administration and explorer emergency service.

Meals and lodging may be reserved for the conference by notifying the council office, 2068 Alhambra Way, Berkeley, or through any of the field offices, located in Richmond, Martinez and Walnut Creek, according to Haworth.

Red Cross Seeks Motor Volunteers

Class will be conducted when at least five persons volunteer. Those interested should call Mrs. T. E. Tyron, Lafayette 4521, Motor Service chairman, or call the chapter house, Walnut Creek 5817.

Don J. V. Bows To El Cerrito Nine, 7 to 2

Coach Jerry Brown took his Junior Varsity baseball team to El Cerrito Monday and made a good start toward a successful season despite a 7-2 loss in a seven-inning game.

The Dons are still in the formative stage, with Coach Brown inserting a large number of players in order to get a "look-see" at as many proteges as possible.

Rick Johnson and John Olcott were impressive as they took turns on the mound.

The Dons are still in the formative stage, with Coach Brown inserting a large number of players in order to get a "look-see" at as many proteges as possible.

Rick Johnson and John Olcott were impressive as they took turns on the mound.

Don Tennis Team Defeats Hayward By 4 to 3 Count

The Don racquet wielders of Coach James McInerney came through Monday when they upset the Hayward Farmers by a 4-3 match count in games played on the local courts.

Howard Flanders, the Dons Number 1 player, started things off right when he defeated the visitors' March 28, at Acalanes, and the Dons appear favorites in both matches of league play.

Swimming makes its first home appearance, against a strong Hayward crew next Wednesday, and the Dons remain the favorites, as they appear to be one of the best teams in the Bay Area.

Phil Lowthian of Acalanes dropped the next match to Bill Hooper, 4-6, 3-6, giving the Dons a one-match edge going into the doubles.

Flanders and Gray dropped the number 1 doubles, 4-6, 4-6, but Don Rathjen and John Kistinger saved the day when they came through 6-3, 6-1.

THE DONS HAD dropped two earlier meets when they lost to Piedmont at Piedmont and again when Piedmont came to Antioch.

The play on the whole was greatly improved over early season form and gave notice that the Dons are ready and capable of defending the county title they won last year.

Scout Council Training Confab March 29 and 30

The Annual Spring Training Conference of the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council will be held at Camp Herms, 1290 Arlington Avenue, El Cerrito, March 29 and 30, according to council training committee chairman.

The conference will open at 2 p. m. Saturday and close with 12:30 luncheon on Sunday. The program will include demonstrations in cubbing handicraft, commissioner training, training in basic scouting skills, a unit commissioner training course for all cub packs, and scout troop and explorer unit committee members and sessions on explorer program development, cub pack administration and explorer emergency service.

Meals and lodging may be reserved for the conference by notifying the council office, 2068 Alhambra Way, Berkeley, or through any of the field offices, located in Richmond, Martinez and Walnut Creek, according to Haworth.

Class will be conducted when at least five persons volunteer. Those interested should call Mrs. T. E. Tyron, Lafayette 4521, Motor Service chairman, or call the chapter house, Walnut Creek 5817.

Don J. V. Bows To El Cerrito Nine, 7 to 2

Coach Jerry Brown took his Junior Varsity baseball team to El Cerrito Monday and made a good start toward a successful season despite a 7-2 loss in a seven-inning game.

The Dons are still in the formative stage, with Coach Brown inserting a large number of players in order to get a "look-see" at as many proteges as possible.

Rick Johnson and John Olcott were impressive as they took turns on the mound.

Whether Dons Play Depends on Weather!..

Acalanes' athletes are ready and "raring" to go, provided the weather man gives them half a chance. A track meet was scheduled for the Dons' cinder oval yesterday afternoon with Antioch, San Ramon and Las Lomas furnishing the opposition. As of midweek, it was anyone's guess as to whether old Jupiter Pluvius would allow it to be held. There was a possibility the meet might be put over to Monday

High School Bonds Needed--Vote 'Yes'

An Editorial

Usually there are two sides to every election, but as far as we're concerned the ayes have it all the way in the Acalanes High School District $1,500,000 bond election Tuesday.

There's no doubt we need new high schools. The way the area has grown in the past is a good argument. The count of 1000 homes under construction convinces us of the need. And the number of elementary school students ready to enter high school proves the case.

If the bond issue is voted, the school tax rate will stay the same. The Acalanes High School District already is bonded as much as the law allows—5 per cent of assessed valuation.

But where will the bond money come from? The new assessed valuation on buildings and homes which will be built in the next few years. In other words, a "yes" vote just means that the schools will get a chance to grow with the area.

The "yes" vote is needed now so that the school district can plan new construction. It takes two years to plan and build high school facilities. The money from the bond issue is planned for new wings at Las Lomas and the first units of a new high school near Orinda. That will take the pressure off Acalanes facilities and get school facilities close to where students live—and, just as important, in efficient, manageable units.

No wonder so many groups have given the bond issue their support. There's no other answer for one of the fastest growing school districts in the state—a high school enrollment which probably will double in four years.

Even if you're on the right side of this issue, you won't help much unless you vote. A two-thirds majority is required for bond authorization. Polls are open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday. You can vote in the following places:

Walnut Creek: Walnut Creek School.
Orinda: Orinda Union School.
Canyon: Canyon School.
Moraga: Moraga School.

You can be sure a "yes" vote is good for your community, your children and you. We can't see it any other way.

Regional Park Plan Urged for County By Park Council

The Contra Costa Park Council has set its next public conference for April 24 in Lafayette upon the invitation of Jack Jaques, president of the Lafayette Dads Club and one of the founders of Oakland's Children's Fairyland.

The Park Council drew 30 organization representatives to its meeting last week with Supervisor Jacob Frederickson of Antioch.

During the meeting the question was brought up on what the council proposed to do for individual communities.

"THE COUNCIL HAS never proposed to allocate parks to specific communities," George Cardinet Jr. of Concord replied, explaining that regional park planning cannot be done from a local basis.

Instead, he pointed out, the council is advocating that the Board of Supervisors create a park commission and his expert to determine the best location of parks for the use of all the county. This is the point of the council resolution now being considered by 670 county organizations, he declared.

Replying to reported opposition from the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce and Gregory Gardens Improvement Club, Cardinet and Chairman Alvin Burton of Walnut Creek insisted that these groups misunderstood the council's aims and were wrong in their belief that a county-wide park program would take away their local neighborhood recreation plans.

Frederickson agreed that the county needed more regional recreational facilities than Hayden Park at Pacheco. However, he noted other county needs and promised to take the taxpayers' wants into account.

Principal Fred Kline of Adelia Kimball School, Antioch, insisted that the council must "build a fire under the Board of Supervisors in order to get action for parks." He charged the planning commission with short-sightedness for not forcing subdivisions to provide neighborhood play areas, and he concluded that the only remedy now was regional parks.

Among those elected to direct county policy was Chairman Burton and Secretary Eva Clune of Walnut Creek are Cardinet of the Concord-Mt. Diablo Trail Ride Association and Jack Jaques of Lafayette.

'Matter' Will Be Topic Sunday for Christian Science

In the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, March 23, on the subject "Matter" one of the verses used from Isaiah will read: "Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel, and his redeemer the Lord of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God" (44:6).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"Matter is neither self-existent nor a product of Spirit. An image of mortal thought, reflected on the retina, is all that the eye beholds. . . . In the vast forever, in the Science and truth of being, the only facts are Spirit and its innumerable creations" (p. 479).

Plan Europe Tour For Don Students

The trip, organized through Bill Worden of the Worden Travel Agency in Orinda, will be led by Wilbur Twining, an Acalanes teacher.

Present plans, according to Twining, are for the students to leave for New York by plane early in July. After a short stay in New York City, the group will fly to London. A week will be spent exploring the British Isles before leaving for Helsinki, Finland, the site of the Olympics.

Accommodations in Helsinki will be in the homes of residents of that city and will give the students a real insight into everyday Finnish life.

After a week in Finland, the group will spend about a month touring the Scandinavian countries, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland and Italy. The return home will also be by air.

The minimum group of six is expected to be organized soon. According to Twining, total cost will be something over $1000, depending on the type of accommodations desired and by the side of the group.

Red Cross Needs Volunteer Aides

Red Cross field directors' offices in military hospitals are in need of volunteer staff aides. Due to the constant flow of men through camps and hospitals, these offices are increasingly busy.

Typing, filing and other clerical duties are among those assigned to staff aides.

If you are willing to give a few hours a week to this important and worthwhile service, call the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the Red Cross at Walnut Creek 5817. A training class began Tuesday.
